WHISKY BLENDING WORKSHOP BY WOVEN

Join award-winning whisky makers Woven – described by the Financial Times as ‘the punks of Scotch whisky’ – for a hands-on whisky blending experience in the heart of Leith.

Woven is a contemporary whisky blender based in Leith, the Edinburgh neighbourhood that perfected whisky blending nearly 200 years ago. In just six years, we’ve won World’s Best titles at the World Whisky Awards and ranked in the World’s 50 Most Admired Whiskies of the world three years running.

The Leith Blending Rooms is a hands-on blending experience where guests create their own whisky to take home using our flavour library and active maturation techniques. Not a scripted tour, but a participatory whisky-making unlike anything else in Scotland.
