We continue to invest heavily in improving the quality and range of products we offer, whether through infrastructure, such as building our vast Frozen warehouse, or introducing our Food Innovation Hub, our fleet trucks, or investing in new partnerships with quality Food Suppliers at the forefront of food NPD.

Our high-quality butchery range continues to grow beyond all expectations as we develop strong partnerships with Scotland's most respected meat suppliers.

We are committed to focus on Scottish products guaranteeing quality and range.

Our logistics experience ensures that we continue to meet the needs of our growing customer base. Our logistic and warehouse teams are constantly seeking improved efficiencies to further enhance service levels, and ultimately to get your valued orders where they need to be, when they should be there.

Each truck in our fleet is now fitted with an A.E.D. device, and we make it known to the public that the driver of the vehicle has access. It's important for us as a business, doing business all over Scotland, to be able to help our communities in a meaningful way.

Frozen Fantastic

With hundreds of potato varieties out there, each with its own unique properties it can be hard keeping up with how best to use each one.

Some are perfect for chipping, others for mashing, and some are great for roasting. With generations of potato farming experience behind them, the Food Heroes understand this complexity.

That's why they focus on using the best fresh potatoes tailored to their intended use, not just by variety to make sure you can serve the perfectly prepared potato product every single day.
