

Elchies

Simply Speyside

Our Story

Elchies is a privately owned farm in the heart of Speyside, offering authentic rural experiences rooted in nature, food and place. From animal encounters and seasonal gatherings to small group visits and hosted events, Elchies gives visitors a warmer, more personal way to experience Speyside. Our aim is simple: to share a distinctive side of Scotland with generosity, character and authenticity. Experiences can be shaped for families, private groups, hosted gatherings, educational visits and selected travel trade partnerships.

Our Location

Elchies is near Aberlour, Moray, in the heart of Speyside close to some of Scotland's best-known whisky destinations and easily reached from both Inverness and Aberdeen.

- Around 1 hour from Inverness and Aberdeen airports
- 5 minutes from The Macallan Estate
- 5 minutes from the Cairngorms National Park
- Easily accessed via the A95

Bookable Products

We offer hosted experiences for small private groups, from one hour to a full day, with scope to tailor content for operators and group organisers:

Farm Walk & Tasting: A guided walk around the farm with opportunities to meet our goats, sheep and alpacas, hear more about life on the farm, and enjoy a seasonal tasting of local produce

Field-to-Table Experiences: Relaxed hosted dining showcasing produce grown or reared on the estate, alongside carefully selected local ingredients.

Local Food & Whisky Pairing: Informal tasting sessions exploring Speyside flavours through local food and whisky pairings

Seasonal & Special Activities: Experiences may include foraging, lambing and kidding season visits, goat kid yoga, small markets, talks and craft-led activities.
