

SCOTLAND'S FIRST MOONSHINE DISTILLERY, ANGUS ALCHEMY IS CREATING WAVES BY BRINGING MOONSHINE BACK TO ITS NATIVE SHORES.

Often associated with America's prohibition era, Moonshine was originally distilled by newly emigrated Scotch whisky and Irish poutine makers. The team at Angus Alchemy, honour this tradition by handcrafting spirits infused with natural, locally-sourced ingredients.

Set in the heart of Angus, Angus Alchemy Distillery does things its own way - and invites you along for the ride. Step inside to nose around the stills, get up close with the craft, and dive headfirst into guided tastings where bold botanicals and unexpected flavour combinations refuse to behave. It's part distillery tour, part flavour experiment... and far more fun than it probably should be.
