

MEGGINCH CASTLE TEA TOURS, PH2 7SW. A LIVING FAMILY TEA STORY SINCE 1785

A tour unlike any other in Scotland – one that begins with a sea voyage in 1785 and ends with a cup of tea poured from the same china that made that journey home. Your tour starts in the family dining room, where Catherine will lead you through a tasting of some of the very rare teas grown and made in Scotland. The teas will be served from the very same china that her ancestor brought back from Japan and China 250 years ago! Immersed in this ancient Scottish family history there will be much to talk about as you walk through the ancient cobbled courtyard into the walled garden to the Tea plantation.
